Engage Code of Ethics

Attitude: How you view the time and experiences with children has an enormous impact on how the children view you. Please come to each event with a positive attitude.

Dependability: Engage events are planned well in advance. Please make sure that if you commit you are able to follow through with your commitment.

Communication: Ask questions. No question is too small or seemingly unimportant.

Confidentiality: Confidentiality is crucial to our success. Please respect the confidentiality of each child and adult.

Respect: It is important that all volunteers show appropriate actions and words for all children and other volunteers in the program, and respect the individuality, dignity and worth of everyone.
